Principal's Voice

Sri L.N.Sahu

Publication of newsletter is a great watershed for Government Autonomous College, Bhawanipatna. It is a novel device to appraise the various individual and departmental activities to different stakeholders. This is not merely a method of the evaluation of past performance of the college rather in a greater sense a source of inspiration to improve in future through the development of competitive spirit among the members of this institution. To improve the quality of higher education, publication of newsletter may be a slow but a sustained strategy that the college has adopted and continuously publishing the same in a systematic manner. I hope in future this newsletter of my college will be a torch bearer for the institution of higher education in the district, state and nation.
