Vol-II, Issue 05, 06 : September-December'2015

Vol-III, Issue 01, 02 : January-April'2016

Prof. L.N.Sahu

I am delighted to publish Vol-II, Issue 5, 6 and Vol-III Issue 1, 2 of IQAC Newsletter. At the outset I am to appreciate the programme initiated by the government to activate all the activities of an institution through introduction of IQAC in the Higher Educational Institutions all over the State/Nation. To back up all systems and to make more activate and keep up the chief objectives of an educational institution which are seem to be died down in the contemporary period. To achieve this end, now the higher educational institutions are playing vital role in the process of activation and trying their best to bear out the same and assure transparency through the Newsletter. This programme is entirely dedicated for overall good in the era of good governance for all. Our motto is to make stand our premier institution i.e. Government College(Autonomous), Bhawanipatna as the model for all the higher educational institutions in the State and country through ensuring quality assurance. In fact, the HEIs have already undertaken such programmes to prompt natural instinct and potentialities of youth as well as sharpen their intellect. To improve academic standard and particularly to meet the hope, expectation and aspiration of youth is the essence of the present day. For this purpose my institution has already adopted the prominent and prime procedures and strategies in imparting quality education both in academic sphere and fields. I am thankful to my members of staff those have been dedicated themselves and devoting their time and energy to assure quality education. Such activities are generally published through this Newsletter and the motto of such publication is to maintain transparency in all activities of the institution as well as in government sponsored developmental plan, project and work.
